

Abstract Nr: 73
Internet ID: 229

Type of Presentation: Poster

Destigmatization programme for family members of people with psychotic disorders

Marketa Vitkova, Dana Chrtkova
Nationale Institute of Mental Health, KLECANY, Czech Republic

Learning Goal:

The learning goal is establish better communication and relationships between the family members and their "ill" relatives. It concerns on climate in family, recovery, empowerment. The aim of the contribution is to present preliminary results of a pilot study testing feasibility of a destigmatization program for people with SMI.

Abstract Text:

The learning goal is to show the good practise from established destigmatization programme for family members in the Czech Republic. It solves the problem of establishing of better communication and relationships between the family members and their "ill" relatives. It concerns on climate in family, idea of recovery, empowerment of people with psychosis. The aim of the contribution is to present preliminary results of a pilot study testing feasibility of a destigmatization program for people with SMI.

ON THE HEALING POWER OF HUMAN RECONNECTION